

On-Line

Paperless Technology and Process Innovation Planning Workshop

March 14th, 2017

AIIM Australasia is pleased to announce an On-Line Paperless Technology and Process Innovation Planning Workshop on March 14th, 2017 from 9am to 11am IST; sponsored by CRE8 Independent Consultants (www.cre8inc.com) and taught by the President of CRE8, Mr. George Dunn.

About the Paperless Technology and Process Innovation workshop

This unique on-line 8 hour workshop will be taught over four weeks in two hour sessions per week, will be presented from an independent consultant point of view and will teach attendees how to:

- better understand paperless technologies (capture, recognition, digital signature, ECM, workflow and ERM) benefits and strategies,
- develop an enterprise plan, return on investment analysis, and roadmap to get projects funded,
- improve processes/workflows using key LEAN, Six Sigma and BPM techniques, and
- develop an application design/request for proposal, to support successful projects.

Each session will include instruction and Q&A with George Dunn President of CRE8 Independent Consultants, and be available on-line for one month, following the workshop. CRE8 is offering an early bird discount for those registered/paid by March 10th, 2017.
